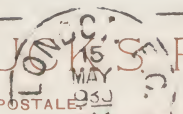
"WELSH WATERFALLS."

10T PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

After the original painting by E. LONGSTAFFE.

The Swallow Falls are a beautiful series of cascades on the River Llugwy, in the vicinity of Bettws-y-Coed. The water flows in three sections down its rocky and steeply sloping bed, which at its widest point is about 60 feet across. In times of flood these falls, the first of which is more of a waterslide, present a most charming and impressive sight, fully entitling them to their rank among the finest falls of Wales.

Printed in England.



My dearest Minnie

Very sorry to miss you on Sunday I left the road about 10.50 so just missed you. I was up the road last night but did not see you I shall be in the road to night about 4.30. I fail to see the joke about the lodgings hoping to see you then vote Harry
